ALEC Conferences and Scholarships for State Legislators

Dear Mr. Becker:

We are writing to you on behalf of the American Legislative Exchange Council ("ALEC"). As we have discussed, ALEC is in the process of conducting a compliance audit of its practices involving its conferences and the scholarships it offers for state legislators to attend these and other ALEC events. To that end, we would like to verify that ALEC's intended actions and practices are appropriate under Wisconsin law.

AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

Established in 1973, ALEC is the nation's largest nonpartisan, voluntary membership association of state legislators – with nearly 1,800 members and with the participation of legislators from all 50 states. ALEC is a tax-exempt organization, recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a section 501(c)(3) educational organization and, as such, is prohibited from engaging in political activities. ALEC is not registered as a lobbying principal in Wisconsin.

On a regular basis, ALEC works to bring together state legislators from across the United States in settings that facilitate an exchange of ideas and the formulation of model legislation on a multitude of public policy issues. In 2009-10, the policy issues considered by ALEC and its members have included health care reform, prison overcrowding, climate change, education funding, prescription drug policies and pension fund reform. In addition to holding its conferences and other events, ALEC continually educates policymakers and the general public on these and other issues through its periodical publications, the general news media, its website and several comprehensive reports that it publishes each year. These materials and other information about ALEC are available on its website: www.alec.org.

To advance its mission of policy formation and education, ALEC establishes numerous task forces that serve as clearinghouses and idea exchanges for state legislators on specific policy issues. With input from both the public and private sectors, model legislation is developed that is then distributed to a broader audience. During the past 35 years, ALEC's task forces have considered, written and approved hundreds of model bills on a wide range of issues. Each year, close to 1,000 bills are introduced in state legislatures that are based at least in part on ALEC's model legislation.

ALEC CONFERENCES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Several times each year, ALEC holds conferences at different locations in the United States. For example, its upcoming conferences include: the ALEC Annual Meeting in San Diego, CA (Aug. 5-8, 2010); the States & Nation Policy Summit in Washington, D.C. (Dec. 1-3, 2010); and, the Spring Task Force Summit in Cincinnati, OH (Apr. 29-30, 2011). Enclosed is a copy of the agenda from the most recent 2010 Spring Task Force Summit that was held in St. Louis, MO on April 23-24, 2010.

State legislator members are invited and encouraged to attend ALEC's conferences. In some instances, legislators make formal presentations to those attending the conference as well as actively participate in task force forums and meetings. In other instances, legislators may only attend educational sessions and meetings – listening to what others at the conferences have to say on public policy issues.

ALEC has recognized that the expense associated with participating in its task forces, forums and conferences may create a barrier for many legislators. To help defray the cost of attending these events, ALEC maintains a scholarship fund that will reimburse legislators for their travel expenses and registration fees. Expenses that will be reimbursed include the reasonable cost of transportation, meals and lodging. Decisions on how scholarships are awarded and in what amounts are made by ALEC staff.

The ALEC scholarship fund is supported with financial donations from hundreds of organizations. Some of these organizations include businesses that are registered as lobbying principals in Wisconsin. Fundraising efforts for the scholarship fund are overseen by ALEC staff members with the involvement of its private sector members – some of whom are individuals registered as Wisconsin lobbyists. Wisconsin state legislators, however, are not involved in these fundraising efforts.

Consistent with the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board's (the "G.A.B.") published guidelines for public officials, state legislators who attend ALEC conferences on behalf of and for the benefit of the state may submit a request for reimbursement of their travel expenses from the ALEC scholarship fund. In the event that a state legislator makes a personal outlay for the travel expenses (rather than ALEC making a reimbursement directly to the State or to a legislator's campaign account), ALEC will now direct the state legislator to disclose the ALEC scholarship fund reimbursement on the legislator's statement of economic interest.

CONCLUSION

To the extent that they involve Wisconsin's lobbying and ethics laws, we request a written opinion of the G.A.B.'s staff confirming that ALEC's intended actions and practices are appropriate:

- ALEC may raise donations for its scholarship fund from organizations that may include Wisconsin lobbying principals;
- As part of its fundraising efforts for its scholarship fund, ALEC may work with individuals who are employees of Wisconsin lobbying principals and/or registered lobbyists in Wisconsin;
- Funds raised from Wisconsin organizations for the ALEC scholarship fund may be used to reimburse state legislators who attend ALEC conferences and other events for the legislator's registration fees and reasonable travel expenses including transportation, lodging and meal costs;
- To ensure compliance with state law, ALEC may require written confirmation that the state legislator is attending on behalf of and for the benefit of the state – ideally, written confirmation that attendance has been authorized by someone other than the attendee and in a legislative leadership position (majority or minority); and,
- In the event that ALEC directly reimburses a state legislator (rather than ALEC making payment to the State of Wisconsin or a legislator's campaign account), ALEC should expect that the scholarship fund reimbursement will appear on the legislator's statement of economic interest.

In addition to receiving a timely staff opinion, we also request that an opinion to ALEC be confirmed pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 5.05(6a) by the G.A.B. itself at its next meeting on July 21 and 22, 2010.

Please let us know if you have questions or need any additional information. We look forward to receiving your reply.

Dear Mr. Wittenwyler:

This is in response to your letter of May 27, 2010 in which you sought the Government Accountability Board's advice regarding scholarships to Wisconsin legislators from the American Legislative Exchange Council ("ALEC"). On a regular basis, ALEC hosts conferences that bring legislators together from across the United States to facilitate the exchange of ideas and formulation of model legislation on public policy issues. ALEC raises money, through its own staff and the assistance of others to help defray the costs of attendance at its conferences through the provision of scholarships to legislators. Although ALEC is not a lobbying principal in Wisconsin, it receives money from many organizations, some of which are lobbying principals, and Wisconsin lobbyists may assist in ALEC's fundraising efforts. However, ALEC alone determines who will receive a scholarship.

As you have described it, I see no inconsistency between ALEC's provision of scholarships to Wisconsin legislators and the laws administered by the Government Accountability Board.

Wisconsin statutes, at §19.56 (3) (c), stats., specifically provide that a state official may receive and retain transportation, lodging, meals, food, and beverages that the official can show by clear and convincing evidence are received on behalf of the state and primarily for the state's benefit. Generally, the best way to meet this burden, and establish that travel is on behalf of the state and for the state's benefit, is through the approval of the travel through legislatively-established processes. Normally, this would be approval by the Speaker in the Assembly and by the Committee on Organization in the Senate. 1991 Wis Eth Bd 11.

You have indicated that legislative attendees may obtain authorization from a legislative leader of either party, but not necessarily the Speaker or the Senate Organization Committee. We think this meets the statutory burden.

The fact that lobbying organizations may make donations to ALEC or that lobbyists may assist in ALEC's fundraising does not bring the lobbying law into play as long as these organizations and individuals neither earmark any monies nor help to decide which Wisconsin legislators receive a scholarship. As I understand it, only ALEC staff makes scholarship award decisions.

Legislators may accept actual and reasonable expenses of travel as well as conference fees. If reimbursement is provided directly to a legislator, he or she must report that to the Board.

This is a staff opinion only, and not a formal opinion of the Government Accountability Board.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Becker, Administrator
Division of Ethics and Accountability

Statement on Center for Media Democracy/PR WATCH Wisconsin GAB Complaint

March 28, 2012

The Center for Media Democracy/PR WATCH recently filed a complaint in Wisconsin on the grounds that PhRMA donated $356,000 to a Wisconsin Scholarship fund for ALEC. In actuality, the amount donated was $2,500. PhRMA representatives said: "To clarify a factually erroneous statement in the Center for Media and Democracy complaint, only $2,500 of PhRMA's 2010 total contribution was attributed to fundraising efforts in Wisconsin."

Additionally, in 2010, ALEC reached out to the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board (GAB) to ensure the capability of the ALEC Scholarship program. Attached you will find a letter and supporting correspondence (here and here) from GAB confirming that ALEC's compliance plan in Wisconsin is appropriate.

ALEC is a forum for state legislators to exchange best practices—founded on the ideas of free markets and limited government—regarding the most critical issues facing the states. At a time when we all should be focused on putting Americans back to work, it is a shame that groups like the Center For Media Democracy and PR WATCH are focused on winning political points over groups that disagree with their principles.

Re: Open Records Request, Wis. Stat. §§ 19.31-19.39

Rep. Suder -

Pursuant to the state open records law, Wis. Stat. §§ 19.31-19.39, I request access to and a copy of all records containing the words "American Legislative Exchange Council" and/or "ALEC," including but not limited to correspondence, emails sent and received, memoranda, informational materials, agendas, financial records (including receipts and expense reports), and other records, for the period October 1, 2010 through December 1, 2011. I also request copies of all correspondence sent and received between your office and Amy Boyer, and between your office and Bryon Wornson, for the same period.

Please produce copies of the records in the most expedient and cost-effective manner possible. If electronic copies on a CD or by email can be produced at a lower cost than paper copies, please provide the copies in such an electronic format.

Please also be aware that the Open Records law "shall be construed in every instance with the presumption of complete public access consistent with the conduct of governmental business. The denial of access generally is contrary to the public interest and only in exceptional cases can access be denied." If you deny this request, or any part of this request, the law requires you to do so in writing and state what part of the law you believe entitles you to deny this request, or any part of this request. Wis. Stat. § 2219.35(4)(a).

As you know, the law requires you to respond to this request "as soon as practicable and without delay." Please confirm receipt of this request. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Brendan Fischer

Rep. Suder --

Based on responses to similar requests we have submitted to other legislators, we strongly believe that there are records responsive to our request in your office and on your email system.

As you may remember the request is for "all records containing the words "American Legislative Exchange Council" and/or "ALEC," including but not limited to correspondence, emails sent and received, memoranda, informational materials, agendas, financial records (including receipts and expense reports), and other records, for the period October 1, 2010 through December 1, 2011."

To clarify, this includes all emails sent and received on state email accounts as well as any other accounts that have been used for official business.

Thank you very much!
